

WINNERS - JERWOOD PHOTOGRAPHY AWARDS 2005

Portfolio Magazine and the Jerwood Charity are pleased to announce that the five winners of the third annual Jerwood Photography Awards have been selected and were presented at an Awards Ceremony at the Jerwood Space in London on the evening of 17 November 2005.

Daniel Gustav Cramer (30), MA Fine Art
Royal College of Art, London, 2005

Nina Mangalanayagam (25), BA Photography
London College of Communication, London, 2005

Oliver Parker (25), BA Photography
Nottingham Trent University, Nottingham, 2005

Sarah Pickering (32), MA Photography & Digital Imaging
Royal College of Art, London, 2005

Luke Stephenson (22), BA Photography
Blackpool & The Fylde College, Blackpool, 2005

Each receives an award of £2,000, has their work published in the December 2005 issue of Portfolio (Issue 42) and presented in a group exhibition at the Jerwood Space, 171 Union Street, Bankside, London (18 November to 11 December 2005). The exhibition will then tour to galleries in the UK, beginning with The Royal Pump Rooms, Leamington Spa from 10 February to 16 April 2006.

Edinburgh-based Portfolio Magazine, which showcases the most innovative contemporary art created and shown in Britain, organise and manage the Awards which are open to artists who work with photography and who have graduated from visual art degree courses in the UK within the last three years. The Jerwood Charity, sponsor of the prestigious Drawing and Sculpture Prizes, is dedicated to imaginative and responsible funding, supporting promising artists in that difficult step into professional life and assisting them to establish successful careers.

This year's selectors were Andrew Dewdney (Chair), Educationalist and Writer; Val Williams, Writer and Curator; Patrick Henry, Director of The Open Eye Gallery in Liverpool; Bettina von Zwehl, Visual Artist, and Gloria Chalmers, Editor of Portfolio Magazine.

2006 Jerwood Photography Awards

Guidelines and application forms for the 2006 Jerwood Photography Awards will be available on 1 May 2006 on Portfolio Magazine's website at www.portfoliocatalogue.com.