PRESS RELEASE

9 June 2011

Jerwood Visual Arts Gallery Trainee announced

Jerwood Visual Arts (JVA) is pleased to announce that the new JVA Gallery Trainee is Oliver Fuke. Oliver studied BA Painting at Wimbledon College of Art before completing an MA in Contemporary Art Theory at Goldsmiths. He recently completed an Education Internship at the Chisenhale Gallery where he planned and managed projects and events across schools in East London. Oliver was selected from over 200 applications. The position is supported by the Jerwood Charitable Foundation and aims to provide the candidate with experience of working within a contemporary public art gallery on a variety of projects, allowing the development of personal interests and skills.

The JVA Gallery Traineeship scheme is an open submission opportunity. Each Traineeship will last for a duration of 6 months. Candidates should be within two years of graduation from an arts related degree with a keen interest in contemporary visual arts and the JVA gallery programme at Jerwood Space. The next call for submissions will be in October 2011.

Notes to editors

Jerwood Visual Arts is a contemporary gallery programme of awards, exhibitions and events at Jerwood Space, which then tours nationally. Jerwood Visual Arts aims to promote and celebrate the work of talented emerging artists across the disciplines of drawing, painting, sculpture, applied arts, photography and moving image. www.jerwoodvisualarts.org

The Jerwood Charitable Foundation is dedicated to imaginative and responsible revenue funding of the arts, supporting emerging artists to develop and grow at important stages in their careers. The aim of their funding is to allow artists and arts organisations to thrive; to continue to develop their skills, imagination and creativity with integrity. They work with artists across art forms, from dance and theatre to literature, music and the visual arts. For more information visit www.jerwoodcharitablefoundation.org
